SLEET HITS THE WESTERN STATES TODAY

FROM THE DAKOTAS TO THE GULF AND MISSISSIPPI TO CONTINENTAL DIVIDE

MID - SOUTH IS HIT

Rivers Threaten To Go On A
Rampage South Of The Mason-Dixon Line

Kansas City, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Over the favorite domain of King Winter—the vast region of the Great Plains and the eastern slopes of the Rocky Mountains—there rolled today the drum-like beat of a gigantic sleet storm with which the burly old monarch heralded reestablishment of his rule.

From the Dakotas and Montana to the Gulf and from the Mississippi river to the continental divide, sleet and rain drove south and eastward on the wings of a northern gale, while the mercury dropped out of sight in the bulbs of thermometers not built to register such temperatures as prevailed.

In Glasgow, Mont., the official thermometer broke yesterday after recording 40 degrees below zero.

Air lines, buses, railroads and all forms of vehicular traffic were forced to mighty struggles, and in many cases failed to keep moving.

Transcontinental air transport plane schedules were cancelled here yesterday and there was little prospect of resuming flight today, as snow and sleet whirled over the city.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Old Man Winter and Old Man River were beginning a spree today in the mid-south.

Chilling winds from the north-west heralded approach of a cold snap, but played second fiddle to steady rains which warned Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas of high water.

Creeks in west Kentucky, southern Missouri, east Arkansas, west Tennessee and the Mississippi Delta were leaping their banks, swelling larger rivers, which in turn were awakening Father Mississippi.

More than six inches of rain had fallen in Memphis in the 24-hour period ending at 7 a. m. today, and it still was raining at noon.

The Mississippi here rose almost three feet and was running steadily between Cairo and Vicksburg.

The rainfall here was the greatest since 1877.

PARK BOARD HAS A SHORT SESSION

Only routine affairs were introduced at the regular meeting of the Kankakee park board held last evening. There were few items of business and the meeting adjourned early. Those present were Commissioners Reuter, Knight, Brouseau and Drolet, and Secretary C. D. Barry. The payment of the regular bills was the most important item of business, and there were less than usual of these.

The board announces that preparations in Alpine playground and Riverview park, for ice skating rinks for children, are almost completed and the rinks will be ready for use in a few days.

Haunt it refreshin' to pick up our newspaper an' run on to the honest, wholesome face of some corn huskin' champion after lookin' at all the other mugs, social, criminal, an' political, that have adorned its pages for months? I kin see why women would want to be emancipated, but why they insist on lookin' emaciated is what gits me.

"Handy Andy"

That was the nickname Andy West, because of his clumsiness, received when he came to the Mason Advertising Agency. How could he hope to win the girl of his dreams, lovely Anne Douglas, when she gauged every suitor by courtly, polished Robert Mason?

THE MARRIAGE MEASURE

You will want to laugh and cry at Andy's pathetic attempts to come up to Anne's ideal of a husband, and you'll be thrilled by the exciting developments of another actress romance, when a former actress falls madly in love with the same boss whom Anne worships.

CARS DITCHED AS BAD SLEET STORM COVERS KANKAKEE

Six Bradley youths, members of the B. and M. Specials, a basketball team, escaped serious injury at midnight, last evening, on highway 22 two miles south of this city when their Pontiac sedan, driven by Delbert Lambert, skidded off the icy pavement and turned upside down in a ditch.

The youths were returning from Chateaufort where they had played a basketball game earlier in the evening. Because of the sleet on the road and windshield of the car they were going at about 15 miles an hour. Other motorists, passing by, refused to stop and pick up the youths because of the danger of skidding and of collision with oncoming machines. The boys were finally brought to their homes by Sheriff Ed Hoennicke who was returning from Herscher with a prisoner.

Among the boys in the car were Edward Monty, Eddie Huddleston and Everett Monty.

Because of the sleet many minor accidents were reported in Kankakee and vicinity last night and this morning. Drivers of cars last night in the country had to stop repeatedly to wipe the ice from windshields while the sleet was falling. It was impossible to drive with any degree of safety at a speed of more than 15 miles an hour. Dozens of cars were reported in ditches today along the highways, but no injuries to persons were reported.

City street crews sprinkled ashes and cinders at all street intersections today which enabled automobiles to stop with safety. Walking was also precarious and "spills" were many on the icy sidewalks although no broken bones were complained of.

NEW OFFICERS OF UNION INSTALLED

New officers of the International Association of Theatrical Stage Hands and Motion Picture Machine Operators, local No. 425, were elected and installed at Labor Hall last night. The entire official force in charge for the past year were re-elected as follows: M. P. Powers, president; S. J. Hart, vice president; C. A. Bernier, secretary and treasurer; T. J. Schmidt, guard; and Steve Hart, business agent.

The national installation ceremonies and ritual of obligation were given in full to the officers by E. W. Sanor, formerly of Champaign but now a member of the Kankakee lodge. The annual banquet of the organization will be held in the near future and a committee is now making arrangements for an enjoyable occasion.

TWO KILLED WHEN BUS AND TRUCK COLLIDE

Union City, Tenn., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Two men were killed and two others seriously injured by a collision of a bus and truck late last night between this city and Fulton, Ky.

The dead have not been positively identified, but they are believed to be two brothers named Lawrence, from Anna, Ill.

Harry Brown, Fulton, Ill., suffered a skull fracture and was not expected to live. Paul Taylor, driver of the bus, was seriously injured, but he is expected to recover, doctors said. The two vehicles collided during a driving rainstorm.

List Of Trial Cases Issued Today; Husband Given Divorce On Desertion

Attorneys for the Greyhound bus company were prepared this afternoon to file a motion with Judge A. W. DeSelm to have the $10,000 damage suit brought against the bus line by Mrs. Dora Close taken from the jury and dismissed.

The bus line attorneys claim that the Ford car in which Charles Close was killed on the Dixie highway north of St. Anne over a year ago was not struck by a bus, but by a Willys-Knight sedan driven by a man named Rogarski who resides at Hoopston. The plaintiff charges that the bus struck the Close car and spun it around on the pavement which resulted in Rogarski's car running into the Ford.

Woman Injured

With Close at the time were his brother, Madsen, and a Mrs. Thurston. The woman was unconscious for five days at St. Mary's hospital after the crash and also has a suit pending against the bus company.

With Close at the time were his brother, Madsen, and a Mrs. Thurston. The woman was unconscious for five days at St. Mary's hospital after the crash and also has a suit pending against the bus company.

Last evening Judge DeSelm granted a divorce to Clarence Fox against his wife, Ruth Virginia Fox, on the grounds of desertion. Attorney C. W. Kurts appeared for the husband. The couple were married Sept. 8, 1925 at Louisville, Kentucky, and the wife deserted on June 15, 1927.

Start Next Case

In the event that the bus case is taken from the jury late today, the case of H. S. Streeter vs. Mrs. Calista Humrichouse will be started at once. This is also a $10,000 damage suit growing out of the death of E. J. McGinn, a Big Four switchman, at the East Court street crossing several years ago. The case was tried last year and both sides agreed to a new trial.

The Conduct vs. Desmarieau and Thurston vs. Greyhound bus line cases have been set for the fifth week of the term. Other cases to be tried this term appear in the following order:

Belgian Princess Is The Bride Of Prince Humbert, Heir To Italian Throne

PRINCESS MARIE PRINCE HUMBERT

Rome, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Princess Marie Jose, only daughter of the King and Queen of the Belgians, this morning became the bride of Prince Humbert of Piedmont, heir to the Italian throne.

The ceremony was performed at mass in the historic Pauline Chapel of the Quirinal Palace, scene of four conclaves for the election of Popes, and some six years ago of the wedding of Humbert's sister, Princess Yolanda, to Count Calvi di Bergolo. Cardinal Maffi, Archbishop of Pisa, noted astronomer and friend of the Italian royal family, performed the ceremony. He was assisted by Monsignor Beccaria, chaplain of the royal household, who baptized today's bridegroom, and was his spiritual mentor through childhood and youth.

Five kings, five queens, 25 princes and 25 princesses of the blood were among the guests, who constituted one of the most brilliant assemblies seen at any European court since the war. King Albert and Queen Elisabeth of the Belgians, and Leopold and Astrid, Duke and Duchess of Brabant, and Charles, Count of Flanders, came from Brussels for the wedding.

King Victor Emanuel of Italy, Queen Helena, and other members of the Italian royal family were present. King Boris of Bulgaria, Prince Cyril and Princess Eudoxia of Bulgaria, Prince Paul and Princess Olga of Yugoslavia were among the other royal guests.

The Duke of York represented his father, King George of Great Britain, Marshal Petain, Saviour of Verdun, and M. Beco-De Fouquieres, Director of the Protocol, were present for France. Ambassador John W. Garrett and Mrs. Garrett represented the United States. The Infante Don Ferdinand was sent by his cousin King Alfonso for Spain. Premier Mussolini, his cabinet, secretaries and their wives were present.

The bride, a tall, striking girl, entered the historic chapel on the arm of her father, King Albert, who was garbed in the full dress of a general. The wedding march was an old Sardinian hymn sung by the Papal Choir lent the royal family for the occasion. At the altar rail waiting for her stood the crown prince, resplendent in the full dress of a colonel of infantry, and wearing the collar of the Annunziata, Italy's highest decoration about his neck.

A mark of high stature, handsome, and with a pleasing smile, he presented a colorful figure in his gray green uniform relieved by silver epaulettes with their long fringes, the plaques and medals, and the long purple sash caught up just under the sword at his left.

Bride's Gown

The bride wore a cream white velvet gown at ankle length with a mantle of the same material, seven yards long, and embroidered with emine.

Cardinal Maffi, smiling benevolently, approached the royal couple as they went forward to the Pri-Dieux prepared for them before the altar.

Matrimony, the Cardinal told the princely pair, "imposes the reciprocal obligation of faithfulness and assistance." With just the suggestion of a friendly smile he told the bride to the throne that "the husband is the head of the family."

The nuptial mass was celebrated "according to royal prerogative." After reading of the gospel the celebrant offered the missal to the King of Italy, who kissed it and returned it.

The Cardinal, turning to the groom, asked: "Humbert Nicholas Thomas John Mary of Savoy, do you intend to take for your legitimate spouse Marie Jose Charlotte Sophie Amelia Henrietta Gabrielle of the Belgians?" The prince responded, "Si!" meaning "Yes."

MEETINGS OF PRAYER WEEK IN PROGRESS

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. G. A. Eckstrand Will Speak Tonight On The Subject; Pentecostal Power

The union meetings held at the Presbyterian church are growing in interest and attendance. These services are arranged in observance of the Universal Week of Prayer. Rev. John F. Norman pastor of the Central Christian church was the preacher at the service of last evening. Mrs. James Baker and Mrs. Melvin Goodwin sang, "Whisper a Prayer." They were accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Mowen. Rev. John Ansborg was the chairman.

Speaking to the subject, "The Upper Room—the Preparation for Pentecost," Rev. Norman said, "Pentecost is synonymous with the coming of the Holy Spirit, third person of the God-head, and the birth of the beginning of the New Testament Church." It is only a step from the meaning of Pentecost to that "upper room," the sacred chamber where Pentecost, with its world-enriching blessing, was born.

As the speaker continued his message he emphasized the invitation to the upper room saying that the invitation was from Jesus. In the next place he called attention to the promise of the upper room. "Ye shall receive power," was the promise, ability to witness, to recall the teachings of the Master, to testify to his ascension. In the third place the speaker said, "There were experiences in that upper room, there were experiences of convictions and of repentance." Mr. Norman closed his message on the upper room by giving some results that took place because they tarried in obedience to the command of Christ. He said that the Holy Spirit came, Peter's winning sermon was preached and the church of Christ was born.

The services will continue each evening this week except Saturday. Tomorrow Rev. G. A. Eckstrand will speak on the subject, "The Power of Pentecost." Anyone will find a welcome to come and worship in this atmosphere of prayer. All are requested to come early and enter into the helpful song service led by Mr. S. M. Hawk. The meetings begin at seven-thirty.

ROSENWALD WEDS IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Julius Rosenberg, head of Sears Roebuck and Company, and Chicago philanthropist, was married today to Mrs. Adele Goodkind, of St. Paul, Minn.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Judge Horace Stern, of the Philadelphia common pleas court, at the home of Mr. Rosenberg's son, Lesing J. Rosenberg, Abington, Montgomery county.

Extreme simplicity marked the occasion. Only the children of the couple by their first marriages attended the wedding.

Mr. Rosenberg and his bride, who is the mother of Lesing Rosenberg, came from New York last night in a private car and were the guests of the son at his home "The Meadows" at Abington.

The ceremony was performed shortly before 10 a. m. and announcement was made to newspaper men sometime afterward.

After the ceremony the party sat down to a wedding breakfast. The dining room was arranged in "T" shape for the occasion. The bride and bridegroom sat at the head with their children arranged along the sides. There were no special decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg will leave tonight for Egypt. They will be accompanied to New York in a private car by some of the children.

Mr. Rosenberg's first wife died last May. Mrs. Goodkind was the widow of Benjamin Goodkind, who was prominent in St. Paul.

ILLINI FRESHMAN SAYS HE IS NOT GUILTY; MURDER

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Alan R. Schumm, seventeen-year-old University of Illinois freshman, who killed his father and shot his mother in the Schumm home here Sunday, pleaded not guilty when arraigned today before Judge Weinberger in the court of criminal corrections on a first-degree murder charge.

The youth lifted his head, glanced at Judge Weinberger, and in a clear voice said: "not guilty."

No application was made for bond, and young Schumm was taken to the city jail. He had been confined to the prison ward of the city hospital since Monday.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Eighteen year old Eugene Grzeskowiak shot his father to death today and then surrendered to the police, asserting that he had shot to protect his mother.

John Grzeskowiak, 38, was shot four times in head and chest, dying instantly. The boy's mother corroborated his story, saying that Eugene had seized the revolver after the elder Grzeskowiak had attacked her with an ax handle and had beaten their son.

BRANDS AS BUNK THE PAYMENT OF A HUGE RANSOM

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Adam "Mulepole" Fritz, wealthy proprietor of Hanbook establishments in St. Louis and East St. Louis, returned to his home here today and branded as "the bunk" a story attributed to a group of his friends that he had been kidnapped and that they paid $35,000 ransom for his release.

He said he had been in Chicago since his disappearance Sunday.

The reported kidnapping took place after Fritz telephoned his wife Sunday evening to arrange to meet her. He never kept the appointment. She declined to discuss the case today.

The Post-Dispatch's informant said that a telephone request demanding $35,000 ransom was received at Fritz's East St. Louis establishment Monday night by Martin Clancy, a clerk. Tuesday morning, the informant said, an envelope containing a note signed by Fritz was handed to one of his friends. The note requested that the money be raised and mentioned a group of friends likely to chip in. The money was raised and yesterday a telephone call was received directing that the money be taken to a point seven miles from East St. Louis where occupants of an awaiting car would be waiting for it. This done, according to the spokesman.

"Fritz hasn't been heard from yet, but I don't think his friends have been double-crossed by his kidnapers," the spokesman was quoted as having said.

MULHOLLAND LAST RITES ON FRIDAY

Funeral services for Charles H. Mulholland, 542 South Fourth avenue, will be held at St. Patrick's church Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock followed by burial at Mount Grove cemetery. Friends may call at the home this evening and until the time of the funeral.

Mr. Mulholland, who was a lifelong resident of Kankakee, died yesterday morning at St. Mary's hospital after a lingering illness and operation. He had been a locomotive engineer on the number of years and was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

BERTRAND AND FESTANT ARE IDENTIFIED

MUST BE RETURNED

Cantlin And Johnston Quiz Strahl Case Suspects Nabbed At Champaign

Positive identification of Clarence "Cooney" Bertrand and Victor Festant, local men awaiting indictment by the Grundy county grand jury at Morris, as two members of the gang which murdered William Schmidt at the Yellow Dog Inn, near Dwight, in 1928 has been made according to word received by States Attorney T. R. Johnston.

Despite the identification of the pair by persons who were in the Yellow Dog at the time of the murder and the procedure of the Grundy county grand jury, Johnston stated that he would insist that Bertrand be returned to Kankakee to stand trial for the murder of Fred Strahl last Sept. 11. He is willing, however, to surrender Festant to Grundy county for a murder trial instead of arraigning Festant here for extortion in connection with a plot against the life of Vito Marcione, head of the Kankakee Italian-Lincoln society.

Barnaby Innocent

Sam Barnaby, the other man arrested here and taken to Morris in connection with the Dwight murder, is said to have been found not connected with the crime and will be released as soon as the Grundy county grand jury completes its investigation. The Grundy county officials are anxious to try Bertrand for the murder, but new developments in the Strahl case have set Johnston against surrendering him.

Glen Patterson, the man arrested at Champaign, may also have knowledge of the Strahl case. Patterson was arrested in Fort Leavenworth, federal penitentiary under the Proyer act for automobile theft and said he is only 25 years of age, an expert stenographer and a graduate of Urbana high school.

Patterson and Lyman Bell, former Champaign merchant police officer, were brought to the office of Court Reporter Will Schneider in the court house last evening. They gave lengthy statements under oath. Johnston and Cantlin refused to divulge the contents of the statements which may be submitted to the grand jury now in session.

The grand jury may conclude its session tomorrow and until the final report of the inquiry is submitted no information as to criminal indictments can be published as grand jury sessions under the law, must be secret.

Kram Foreman

William A. Kram, New York Central freight agent, was appointed foreman of the jury by Judge A. W. DeSelm.

TRIES OUT A FORD; HE'S STILL TRYING

A man wanted an automobile. So he took one that suited his individual taste and one that was in good running order.

He posed as a prospective customer at the Bergeron Motor Sales, 234 South East avenue. He apparently was a finicky person and wanted to be sure that the car he bought would stand the test. Yesterday he looked over the cars displayed for sale. Finally he saw a Model A Ford sedan that appealed to him. "I like that one," said he, "may I drive it out for a test?"

He must have liked the car. And another stolen car report has been added to the list at police headquarters.

American Delegates Have Confidence In Ultimate Result Of Naval Meeting

By BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, Jan. 8.—(AP)—As viewed in advance from Washington, the forthcoming London Naval conference presents a picture of historic contrast to the memorable outlines of the gathering of the sea powers here in 1921.

President Hoover, as well as the delegates who are to sail from New York tomorrow see a pathway beset by difficulties, but they are confident in the ultimate result; but they recognize fully that circumstances and the methods of 1921 are not the circumstances and the methods of 1930.

Speaking a word of farewell to members of the delegation, yesterday, the President adjured them to be patient, and called upon the country to bear with confidence and patience the ordeal of a diplomatic discussion which may last for many weeks from the opening session on January 21. He said no "hurried conclusions" were expected, but predicted that eventually the spokesmen of the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy would find a common basis for ending naval competition and permanently promoting peace.

At London secretary Stimson proposes a course of quiet, persistent effort, wholly devoid of diplomatic fireworks. Not only that, but if the expectations of the Chief American delegate are borne out, none of the other powers will begin the negotiations by talking in detail of what they must have for National Security or by sounding any other note which might jar on the sensibilities of any of the conferees.

Certain physical features of the situation throw additional illumination on the parting words of President Hoover and the known purposes of Secretary Stimson in 1921 the American government held, so to speak, a handful of trumpets in the form of a great battleship fleet, regarded by American statesmen as beyond the absolute necessities of peace. The United States was able to lay on the table a momentous offer to restrict construction.

But at London in 1930 the United States finds itself behind, rather than ahead, in certain unrestricted classes of warcraft, notably cruisers. There has been no hint that President Hoover is willing to sacrifice any considerable percentage of the fifteen cruiser building program. The Americans will have offers to make in other directions. They want the holiday in battleship building continued, they would be content with a limitation reducing destroyer strength, and they would like to abandon the submarine altogether. But the world's discussion of naval armament in recent months has thrust the cruiser in the very first rank of controversy, and it is at this very point, that the American government finds a positive limit on its ability to offer reduction.

Although the President is charged with conducting the Foreign Affairs of the nation, the treaties he makes must be ratified by the senate before they come into force.

HALF MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF BOOZE TAKEN

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Alcohol valued by Prohibition Administration Samuel O. Wynne at more than half a million dollars at bootleg prices was in the hands of officials here today.

The alcohol, together with 17 vats of liquor and several thousand dollars worth of distilling apparatus, was seized in a raid last night on one of the largest distilling plants uncovered in this city since prohibition.

Three arrests were made. The alcohol, in 2,800 five gallon cans, was loaded on four five-ton trucks for delivery to customers when the agents closed in on the two story building.

Authorities said, the building, occupied by the Beiko Manufacturing company, had been under observation for some time. They said the plant had been in operation several years, ostensibly in the manufacture of machinery.

MILITARY FUNERAL ACCORDED TO JOHN ROSWISKI TUESDAY

John Roswiski, young Kankakee business man and World war veteran, a native of Lithuania, was laid to rest in St. Rose cemetery yesterday amid religious pomp and full military honors. A military escort accompanied the body to the grave and a firing squad in charge of Sergeant Betourne of Company I, fired several volleys as the body was lowered. Taps were sounded by W. H. Maitland, commander of the American Legion drum and bugle corps.

The cortege left the Morgan and Clancy funeral home at 9:15 o'clock and at 9:30 a requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Stanislaus Catholic church by the Rev. John B. Menickowski, pastor of the church.

During the mass Lambert Paulsen, just returned from a 9,000 mile concert tour, sang "Gounods 'Ave Maria,' 'Teach Me To Pray' and 'Lead Kindly Light.' Miss May Lavery was the organist. There was a beautiful floral offering, including an attractive design given by the American Legion post.

The pallbearers, all World war veterans, were: O. V. Farmer, Earl Cougherty, J. A. Cline, Veigh McIntyre, Earl Beckheim and K. Y. Evans.

Arrangements for the funeral, which was one of the largest military ceremonies ever held here, were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Senculius of 254 South East avenue, intimate friends of the deceased.

Good by Any Name
The reason for the name given the strawberry is not known definitely. It may have been because straw was used to protect the plants, or more probably the word is a corruption of strawberry, so named because of the manner in which the plants throw out runners.

Falling in Love a Disease
A scientist has discovered that falling in love is a disease whose victims are just as much at its mercy as are the pneumonia patients in a hospital. This discovery had often been suspected by parmen in their dealings with John and Mary at the impressionable age.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

CAPITAL SOCIETY ENTERTAINS THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Washington, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The Washington social whirl last night claimed President Hoover for its own.

Two affairs, a dinner and a reception, lured the chief executive from the White House to which, with a single exception, his social activities have been confined, ever since his inauguration.

The first of these was the dinner given annually for the president by his vice-president, held this year in Mr. Curtis' spacious suite at the Mayflower hotel, with his sister, Mrs. Dolly Curtis Gann, as hostess.

The second was the annual reception of the Congressional club, an organization whose membership is confined to the wives of members of the house and senate. Not for three years had a president accepted an invitation to this yearly event.

Mrs. Hoover was unable to go along. A persistent cold which has troubled her since Christmas kept her indoors, upon the advice of the White House physician, although the ailment is not considered of a serious nature.

Custom in such cases decrees that the president's partner be the ranking lady of the cabinet circle. Mrs. Stimson, wife of the secretary of state, was out of town, and so the honor fell to Mrs. Patrick J. Hurley, whose husband, the secretary of war, is the most recent addition to the president's official family.

On Rainy Days
If your children grow tired of this or that toy game, collect these into one big box in the attic or cellar and reserve them for rainy days. They forget them when put away and will take new interest in them.

CONSIDERABLE CORN SPOILING IN CRIBS

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Considerable corn is spoiling in the cribs in Central and South portions of Illinois, weather bureau weather and crop synopsis for the week ended yesterday, said today. It was as follows:

The week was mild and there was not much snowfall. The ground was bare on Monday. General rain occurred on the first and at the week end. Dirt roads are bad in the central and southern divisions. Winter wheat continues in good condition. Small progress was made with corn husking but it is mostly completed in the northern counties. Considerable is spoiling in the cribs in the central and south.

Architectural Advance
A pendative in architecture is a structure in masonry designed to support a downward vault over four or more isolated piers. Its development by Byzantine architects of the sixth century made it possible to erect domes above interiors of any desired plan, and was one of the greatest applications to the history of architecture.

ROBERT M'KAY, JR., PURCHASES GARAGE OF ARTHUR E. GRAY

Robert McKay, Jr., Willys-Overland distributor for Kankakee and dealer for the city of Kankakee has bought the Arthur E. Gray garage at 143 South Indiana ave., occupied the last year by Eugene Betourne and Joe Beadles. He will take complete possession the first of February.

Mr. McKay is one of the oldest Willys-Overland dealers in this section of the country, having been admitted to membership in the ten-year loyalty club of the Willys-Overland company some years ago. He has been located here for the past two years, coming to Kankakee from St. Anne. Mr. McKay will have a large showroom for the display of all models of the Willys-Knight, Whippet and the new Willys-cars, and Willys-Knight and Whippet trucks. He will carry a full line of parts and accessories.

A general repair shop will be conducted to service and repair all makes of cars at a reasonable cost. Customers wanting to have their cars washed or greased will receive this service. Day and night storage will be one of the new features Joe Beadles will remain as "shop foreman" and have complete charge of the repair shop.

All former customers as well as new will be made welcome at the new place of business.

NEW OLDSMOBILE NOW ON DISPLAY AT LANG AGENCY

The 1930 Oldsmobile displays the facts that every prospective buyer should know in order that he may invest his money wisely. The 1930 Oldsmobile offers the motorist supreme excellence in every quality, no one quality is sacrificed at the expense of others. The 1930 style and beauty of Fisher body design stands alone in the measure of value. The VV windshield (an exclusive feature on the Fisher body) gives unobstructed vision and perfect ventilation. The comfort provided in the body by Fisher is made possible by the deep, full, form-fitting seats, with their high properly angled backs—these new features together with the long springs and large hydraulic shock absorbers give real enjoyment for those who ride in and drive the 1930 Oldsmobile.

The new type carburetor together with the improved brakes, give a complete satisfied feeling of safety and a supreme get-away in the most congested traffic.

The instruments are grouped in a beautiful finished panel, which is indirectly lighted, making possible to read them at all times without the glare that comes from a dash light.

The adjustable front seat together with the adjustable steering column gives individual comfort.

When the prospective buyer considers the beauty of Oldsmobile, the style and comfort provided in its "Body by Fisher" its outstanding performance, its easy steering and handling and its many other fine features there is only one conclusion—it must be good.

A Rolls-Royce Car for $15,000!

Why! I Can Buy a Car for $100!

True. A Rolls-Royce has style, hon-ton, prestige and superlative construction, making it the Emperor of the auto world. The El Royce Radio was designed and constructed to occupy the same place in the radio world, but at regular prices. Having secured the factory representation for a number of counties, I have been able to purchase, in a quantity at a price that I am passing on to Kankakee radio buyers.

Arthur Lambert, who has been constructing radios ever since he was in school, will see to the selling and servicing for Kankakee county.
